GENERAL OPINIONS OF SENATORS.

The opinions of Senators on the treaty to-day among Senators are extremely conflicting. While some assent to it in the person of the Alabama claims, others object to it because it embraces no definite remedy, are of opinion that our interests are not well provided for as was anticipated, and believe it a treaty which will not be satisfactory to the country. Those who are unfavorably impressed are not, on the other hand, willing that it be rejected, for they say that would be worse than to let it go into effect. Some of the Republican leaders of the Senate, who are unfavorably impressed with the treaty, say that they come to the conclusion that it is the best that can be had, and will give their support to it. Democratic Senators are disposed to be cautious, and say that they will not express an opinion until they have had time to examine it more carefully.

WHAT SENATOR SUMNER THINKS.

Chief Justice Chase has also consulted with the Senate on British claims. In Senator Sumner, the claims had to be submitted; that our Commissioner should have consented to the article on the subject of the Alabama claims, and to the Commissioners, was a surprise to him. The claim of consequential damages, which the framers of the treaty have refused to consider, is regarded by him as the most important item of the claims, and he is not satisfied that the treaty is not open to the objection that it does not provide for the settlement of that claim. He is also dissatisfied with the provision for the settlement of the claims by a tribunal of arbitration, and thinks that the Commissioners should have provided for the settlement of the claims by the Commissioners themselves. He is also dissatisfied with the provision for the settlement of the claims by a tribunal of arbitration, and thinks that the Commissioners should have provided for the settlement of the claims by the Commissioners themselves. He is also dissatisfied with the provision for the settlement of the claims by a tribunal of arbitration, and thinks that the Commissioners should have provided for the settlement of the claims by the Commissioners themselves.

Review of the Stock, Gold, and Money Markets.

Mrs. Lincoln to Leave for Chicago Next Monday.

J. W. Simonton to Cyrus W. Field on Irregularities in Cable Management.

Reports from the Anniversaries.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The stock market to-day was dull, and declined early in the day, but afterward recovered, and closing at an advance of ½ to ¾ per cent on the opening quotations. The action of the Board, for the last five days, seems to indicate the existence for some period of a dull and inactive market, with prices ranging within narrow limits, so that the daily fluctuations will be of little importance.

MODERN STATE SECURITIES

were active and firm. Missouri, Tennessee, Georgia, new South Carolina and North Carolina bonds. The TRI-DAILY CHRONICLE in South Carolina is authorized by the Council of the State.

THE MONEY MARKET

continues very easy, with the supply largely in excess of the demand. Call loans range from 5 to 6 per cent, closing at 5 per cent. Prime paper, 6 to 7 per cent discount.

THE GOVERNMENT BOND MARKET

was quiet and steady. Coupon sixes of 1881 declined to 111¾, and closed firm at 109¾ to 110¼. Coupon fives for funding were in active demand at 109¾ to 110. Five-twenties were in moderate demand for investment, and were firm at 94¼ to 95¼. The stock closed at 94¼ to 94¾. Old issue bonds, 94¼ to 94¾. Ten-forties, 94¼ to 94¾.

THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE MARKET

was quiet and closing at 108½ to 109¼ for prime bankers' sixty-day sterling, and 110¼ to 110¾ for sight. Commercial sterling, 107½ to 108. Francs, 5·16¼ to 5·14¾ per cent discount over gold. Prussian silver, 71 to 71½. Five-franc pieces, 95 to 95½. Specie was held for foreign exchange, and was drawn from the Sub-Treasury for that purpose.

THE GOLD MARKET

was dull and heavy, selling at 110¼ to 110¾, closing at 110¼ to 110¾. The following were the rates paid for carrying:

Flat	6 per cent
1 to 5 days	6 per cent
6 days	5 per cent
7 days	4 per cent
8 days	3 per cent
9 days	2 per cent
10 days	1 per cent

THE GOLD SCHEME.

The Gold Ring scheme appears to be the subject of conversation in the city, and more or less from the country. The retail dealers of the city were also in the market to-day to stock up their supplies, which are said to be very low, and for certainly weeks to come.

RETROSPECTIVE.

WISCONSIN.

The Duluth Canal—Abatement Order Found.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MADISON, May 11.—Judge Sanborn, Assistant Attorney General, has just returned from Duluth and Superior City, whither he went to examine the canal at the Minnesota Point, and consult with the proper officials of both cities. The city authorities declined to co-operate in the matter, and refused to remove the piers of the St. Louis Bay Ferry Company, and when he was at Duluth the canal, about the middle of May, was filled with sand, and the water flowing in the Superior Bay, which is higher than the water in the lake, was running out. The Minnesota Point Company proposes to make it in the present year.

The Foreign Relations Committee met to-day and took under the articles of treaty submitted to the Senate by the President. The general views of the subject, received were sent to the Assistant Secretary of State in order to obtain the opinion of the Attorney-General on the subject. The Committee will meet again to-morrow, and will probably report to the Senate on Monday.

The Smith-Dilworth Custody Case

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MILWAUKEE, May 11.—The cross-examination of Mrs. Dilworth was resumed this morning, and continued, and all attempts to draw out a confession of improper relations with Smith proved futile. She denied all charges, and stated that all her acquaintance with the defendant pertain to business.

La Belle Lake, at Commerce, has been thoroughly dredged for the past month, and is now ready for the boating season. The depots will have three trips.

CONFIRMATION OF STATE OFFICERS.

One of the business to be considered by the Legislature is the confirmation of the officers of the Illinois Department. These officers are the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, and Superintendent of Public Instruction. To the offices of Governor, Treasurer, and Attorney General there are no fees allowed. The present salary of the Governor is made sufficient to pay his personal expenses by ovations of the constitution which are discussed, to the effect. The salary of the Treasurer is not equal to that of a respectable salesman in a retail store in Chicago. The clerk of Secretary of State's office of the Auditor is generally supposed to be heartless, made so by the fees. There are two theories on which the best of fees of public officers. The first is, that the Secretary of State and the Governor or the Judges, and that their services should be paid for by the public generally, and that they should be required to perform all duties pertaining to their offices, without any additional fees or perquisites, or any way for compensation, except their salaries. The other theory is, that the duties of these officers being mainly performed for the personal benefit and convenience of individuals, such persons enjoying the service should pay it, for proportionate to the service rendered.

The new constitution leaves it to the Legislature to adjust either of these plans, with the condition that, if fees be collected, they shall be paid into the public Treasury, and that the officer shall be paid a fixed sum for his services. The fees of the Auditor and Secretary of State, if continued, will probably exceed any salary that may be voted them, and it is possible that a fixed salary based on the rate of fees can be made in either case.

The Governor ought to be paid a liberal salary, and the present is the time to make it so. The duties of his office are responsible, and should always be filled by a man of experience, learning, and integrity, as it is at the present time. There should be a salary sufficiently liberal to enable the Governor to live in a manner such as our authorities want to receive the audience from another part of the State to the seat of government. The sum, considering, to a large extent, what he has to do, is insignificant to pay the Governor's table salary, and our counsel is entrusted his responsibilities.

We do not understand the character of the duties performed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for which fees are charged, if indeed, there be any such fees. But, whatever may be the case, no State officer should be allowed to receive any fee for any duty; they should all receive a fixed proportional to their services and the importance of their trust, and the incidental revenue from their offices ought to be paid into the State Treasury.

THE NATIONAL BANKS.

An issue arrived from the Comptroller of the Currency, the sum of $1,000,000 of the First National Bank of Chicago, No. 18, and the First National Bank, No. 87, July 1, 1870, was handed $25,000,000, part of the $54,000,000 authorized by the law. The cause of so small an amount being taken after six months of opportunity has been unexplained. The law provides that each association may take circulation to the amount of its capital stock, which section was entitled to eighty-three of the 300 cities, the remainder being offered to the West and to the Pacific States. It is undoubtedly, one reason, but the principal reason has been the difficulty generally supposed to be heretofore, made so by the law. There are two theories on which the cost of fees of public officers. The first is, that the Secretary of State and the Governor or the Judges, and that their services should be paid for by the public generally, and that they should be required to perform all duties pertaining to their offices, without any additional fees or perquisites, or any way for compensation, except their salaries. The other theory is, that the duties of these officers being mainly performed for the personal benefit and convenience of individuals, such persons enjoying the service should pay it, for proportionate to the service rendered.

The new constitution leaves it to the Legislature to adjust either of these plans, with the condition that, if fees be collected, they shall be paid into the public Treasury, and that the officer shall be paid a fixed sum for his services. The fees of the Auditor and Secretary of State, if continued, will probably exceed any salary that may be voted them, and it is possible that a fixed salary based on the rate of fees can be made in either case.

The Governor ought to be paid a liberal salary, and the present is the time to make it so. The duties of his office are responsible, and should always be filled by a man of experience, learning, and integrity, as it is at the present time. There should be a salary sufficiently liberal to enable the Governor to live in a manner such as our authorities want to receive the audience from another part of the State to the seat of government. The sum, considering, to a large extent, what he has to do, is insignificant to pay the Governor's table salary, and our counsel is entrusted his responsibilities.

We do not understand the character of the duties performed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for which fees are charged, if indeed, there be any such fees. But, whatever may be the case, no State officer should be allowed to receive any fee for any duty; they should all receive a fixed proportional to their services and the importance of their trust, and the incidental revenue from their offices ought to be paid into the State Treasury.
